Readings: First Reading: Acts 2:14a, 36-41

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, "Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified." Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Psalm 116: 1-3, 10-17. Said antiphonally.

Leader: I love the Lord

All: who has heard the voice of my supplication,

Leader: who has listened to me

All: whenever I called.

Leader: The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me;

All: I came to grief and sorrow.

Leader: I believed, even when I said,

All: "I have been brought very low."

Leader: In my distress I said,

All: "No one can be trusted."

Leader: How shall I repay you, O Lord,

All: for all the good things you have done for me?

Leader: I will lift up the cup of salvation

All: and call upon your name.

Leader: I will fulfil my vows to the Lord

All: in the presence of all the people.

Leader: Precious in your sight, O Lord

All: is the death of your servants.

Leader: O Lord, I am your servant;

All: I am your servant and the child of your handmaid; you have freed me from my bonds.

Leader: I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving

All: and call upon the name of the Lord.

Leader: I will fulfil my vows to the Lord

All: in the presence of all the people of God.

All: Glory to God, Source of all being, eternal Word, and Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever. Amen.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 1:17-23

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God. Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

Gospel Reading: Luke 24:13-35

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?"

They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?"

They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place.

Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him."

Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared!

Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?"

Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over."

So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?"

That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

SONG WORDS

Gathering Song: Morning Has Broken

CP #3

Opening Hymn: Christ the Lord Is Risen Today

CP #206

Gradual Hymn: Christ Is Risen, Christ Is Risen CP #220

Offertory: In the Bulb There Is a Flower VU #703

1. In the bulb there is a flower;
in the seed, an apple tree;
in cocoons, a hidden promise:
butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,
unrevealed until its season,
something God alone can see.
2. There's a song in every silence,
seeking word and melody;
there's a dawn in every darkness,
bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future;
what it holds a mystery,
unrevealed until its season,
something God alone can see.
3. In our end is our beginning;
in our time, infinity;
in our doubt there is believing;
in our life, eternity.
In our death, a resurrection;
at the last, a victory,
unrevealed until its season,
something God alone can see.

Communion 2 The Table of the Lord

I will feast at the table of the Lord
I will feast at the table of the Lord
I won't hunger anymore

At His table

I will feast at the table of the Lord
I will feast at the table of the Lord
I won't hunger anymore
At His table

*Come all you weary; come and find
His yoke is easy; His burden light
He is able; He will restore
At the table of the Lord.*

There is peace at the table of the Lord
There is peace at the table of the Lord
I won't worry anymore
At His table

There is healing at the table of the Lord
There is healing at the table of the Lord
I won't suffer anymore
At His table

*Come all you weary; come and find
His yoke is easy; His burden light
He is able; He will restore
At the table of the Lord*

I know He has a place for me
Oh, what joy will fill my heart
With the saints around the mercy seat of God.

Come all you weary; come and find
His yoke is easy; his burden light
He is able; He will restore
At the table of the Lord
At the table of the Lord

I'm invited to the table of the Lord
I'm invited to the table of the Lord
He says, "Come just as you are"
To His table

Communion Song 3: Open Our Eyes, Lord

Open our eyes, Lord,
we want to see Jesus,
to reach out and touch Him,
and say that we love Him.
Open our ears, Lord,
and help us to listen.
Open our eyes, Lord,
we want to see Jesus.

Open our hearts, Lord,
that we might receive you.
Open our spirits
and teach us to worship.
Open our lips, Lord,
and teach us to praise you.
Open our eyes, Lord,
we want to see Jesus.

Communion 4: Have You Seen Jesus My Lord?

Chorus: *Have you seen Jesus my Lord?
He's here in plain view.
Take a look, open your eyes and He'll show love to you.*

Have you ever looked at a sunset,
with the sky mellowing red?
And the clouds suspended like feathers?
Then I say you've seen Jesus my Lord.

Chorus

Have you ever stood at the ocean, with the white foam at your feet?
Felt the endless thundering motion?
Then I say you've seen Jesus my Lord.

Chorus

Have you ever looked at the cross, with a man hanging in pain,
and the look of love in His eyes?
Then I say you've seen Jesus my Lord.

Chorus

Have you ever stood in the family,
with the Lord there in your midst?
Seen the face of Christ on another?
Then I say you've seen Jesus my Lord.

Chorus

Closing Hymn: Give Thanks for Life
